"Existing is just being in the world but not doing anything meaningful. Living is when you are out there fulfilling your dreams and going places you want to go."

"Living is happiness. You have a fulfilling life. Existence, you have no happiness. You're working just to live."

- Mauricio Lemus, owner, The Sands Restaurant (Raton)

"Existing is just getting by, going through the motions without purpose. Living involves relationship, joy, purpose, fulfillment, friendship, love..."

- Tim Bailey, Christian missionary, Romania (Trinidad)

"Existing is just getting by, doing day-to-day things, just sustaining yourself. Living is experiencing, exploring, inventing and living life to the fullest."

- Rosemary Arko, veterinary assistant, Mesa Vista Veterinary Hospital (Raton)

"When you live life to the fullest instead of laying down. You get out there and work and meet new people and discover new things. Enjoy the ride!"

- Joseph Duran, owner, J.D. Landscaping (Trinidad)

"Living is enjoying what you have and being grateful for everything and everyone that you have in your life, whereas existing is just the routine."

- Monica Duran, account representative, State Farm Insurance (Raton)
