TRINIDAD-RATON CONNECTIONS

This week's question:

From the Raton area: When was your last trip to Trinidad?

"I get my hair cut by Sheila at Commercial Salon every three weeks. I make FedEx deliveries in both Raton and Trinidad." – Rebecca Sena of Springer, NM

"We had reservations at Brix for our 32nd anniversary, which was Valentine's Day. When we go, we usually do it all in one trip, including Big R and Safeway." – Penny Sue Kuhns, owner, Enchanted Grounds Espresso Bar & Café in Raton, N.M.

"I'm there three to four times a week for food and Wi-Fi. I go to The Café for breakfast or lunch and stay for four hours working on my laptop. I also go to What'a Grind. I trade off between those and Enchanted Grounds in Raton." – software engineer Mike Schoonover of Folsom, NM

From the Trinidad area: When was your last trip to Raton?

"I'm there every day. I retired after 31 years at Trinidad Middle School, and now I'm double dipping, teaching at Raton High School. I also visit my grandkids in Raton." – Dennis Topping, Special Education teacher

"I go over there for their restaurants – especially the Icehouse, Mulligan's and Sands – for variety and to support them because they support the store." – Carol Cometto, manager of The Tire Shop Wine & Spirits

"I work three days a week as a respiratory therapist at MCMC Hospital. Nearly half the employees are from Trinidad. I stop at Enchanted Grounds every trip." On your way to work, or your way home? "Yes." – Peggy Westmoreland at Gallery Main
