TRAINING ENDS

1st SBCT to convoy from Piñon Canyon back to Fort Carson

Ft. Carson Public Affairs Office
Special to The Chronicle-News

FORT CARSON, Colo. — The 1st Stryker Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, and some associate units will convoy from Piñon Canyon Maneuver Site to Fort Carson between June 12 - 18 after completing a two-week exercise called Operation Raider Focus.

Approximately 600 military vehicles will take part in this multi-day convoy to include more than 300 Stryker armored vehicles. Coordination has been made with the Colorado Department of Transportation, Colorado State Police and local law enforcement and municipal agencies.

Convoys will consist of no more than 30 vehicles per group, and 30-minute spacing is planned between each convoy. Convoys will travel at 40 miles per hour and utilize two routes.

Convoys will travel on Interstate Highway 25, U.S. Highway 350 and U.S. Highway 50. Due to the increase in vehicle traffic and slow speed of the convoys travelers may experience delays.

No travel will occur on I-25 through Pueblo during the hours of 7-9 a.m. and 4-6 p.m., which is during peak rush hour time periods.

Increased dust and noise levels from this exercise can be expected during this time period, due to training and vehicle traffic throughout the training area. The training includes day and night blank-fire exercises incorporating aircraft and military members from the Army and Air Force.

The purpose of Raider Focus was to prepare Soldiers for any possible mission should the unit be called to support any contingency around the globe. During the exercise, crews will engage simulated targets using different scenarios to build team cohesion and ensure they are proficient in their skills.

Noise complaints should be directed to the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-9849.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4143/7525. After hours, please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.

SCRT 2015 SUMMER PROFESSIONAL SEASON

Southern Colorado Repertory Theatre proudly presents summer season entertainment

By Cynthia Berresse Ploski
Art Correspondent
The Chronicle-News

Before spring has sprung in Trinidad, certain things happen. The cottonwoods begin sprouting leaves, the hummingbirds return to our feeders and a new crop of SCRT (Southern Colorado Repertory Theatre) professional actors arrive to begin rehearsing a summer of live entertainment at the Famous Performing Arts Theatre.

Only then, can we finally move on to the fun and festivities of summer.

The professional cast of 13 exciting young people have just arrived. Some of them love SCRT so much from prior years, they have returned for more SCRT seasons. Yet most of these performers have come to fall in love with Trinidad for the first time.

You will meet them individually in coming issues of The Chronicle-News, and you will see them about town, with youthful energy and stars in their eyes.

During an orientation meeting for actors, staff and board members, Artistic Director Fred Vaugeois pointed out the company rules and highlights of the summer program. Actors

SUMMERSTOCK

Shuler actors ride in by rail

By Tim Keller
Correspondent
The Chronicle-News

Last week the Amtrak Southwest Chief brought three leading actors from Chicago to Raton to join the Shuler Theater's summerstock company in presenting four shows over the next two months.

Cassie Thompson, Stephen Peebles and Mike Danovich joined returning producer/director/actor Ian McCabe for the summer event.

Thompson will play Cinderella and Rapunzel in "Into the Woods," along with roles in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Boeing Boeing." Peebles will play Cinderella's Prince, the Wolf, and Florinda in "Into the Woods," with Danovich playing Jack and Steward in the acclaimed musical, directed by McCabe.

The season begins June 19-20 with "A Variety of Errors," followed by "Into the Woods" June 25 through July 5. Information and tickets are available at the Shuler Theater, (575) 445-4746.
