

OVER THE PASS

"I'm a new artist in town — three months ago from New Orleans — so I'll take in whatever festivities Trinidad has to offer, and I'll be making art, too."

— Erik Weigand (Trinidad)

Question of the Week:

"What are you doing for the Fourth of July?"

Photos by Tim Keller / The Chronicle-News

"I'll be camping with my family at the dam, south shore. We do it one holiday every year."

— Tony Sandoval (Trinidad)

"It's rodeo weekend at home in Cimarron, but we've already been to a lot of rodeos. We're getting out of town, going to Sanuario de Chimayo, which we haven't visited for a few years."

— Fred and Elizabeth Martinez (Raton)

"I'm going to Las Vegas [New Mexico]. They have a real good fiesta with all the top New Mexico Spanish bands."

— Alex Romero (Raton)

"My sister-in-law's coming from California. I've never met her. We'll picnic at the house, and then go watch the fireworks show along First Street."

— Brenda Bustos (Raton)

"We'll be spending it home by ourselves, probably doing yard work."

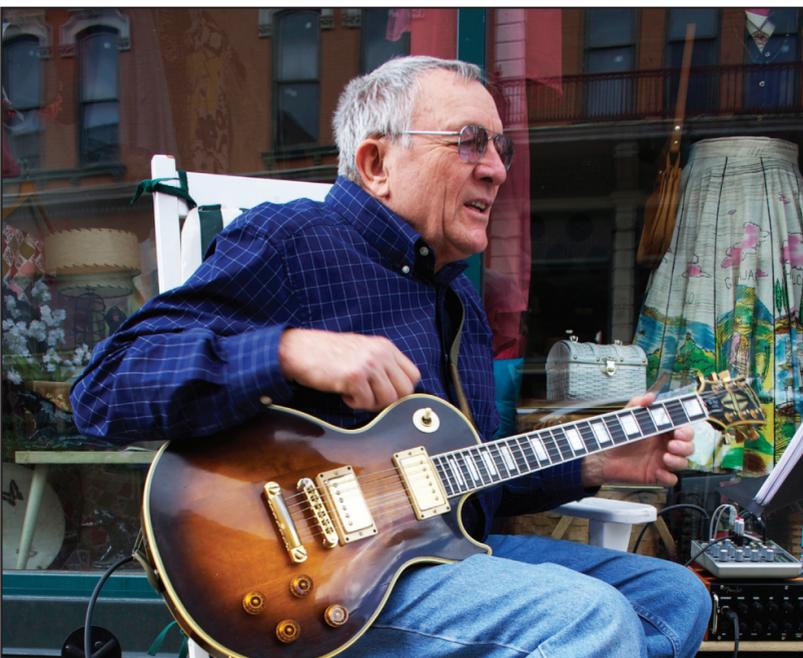

— Milt and Barb Savage (Trinidad)

THE ARTS

Friday's Art Trek grows, delivers culture, fun to locals, tourists

During Friday's second Art Trek of the year, Edward Shaw, below, played his 1985 Gibson Les Paul outside of Vintage Treasures on Commercial Street, while members of the Trinidad Community Chorale, right, entertained the numerous people who enjoyed the culture on display along Main Street.
