"One time in Houston we went to an alligator farm and we fed the alligators marshmallows. I thought it was really cool. I was five."

— Seychelle Lusk, sophomore, GOAL Academy (Trinidad)

"When we first moved to Raton from eastern Kansas, my dad took me hunting at the top of Cimarron Canyon. He was totally unprepared to kill a deer. After he did, he left me with the deer while he went for help. I sat there by myself in the wilderness for a couple hours. I was a 4th grader."

— Howard Woodworth (Raton)

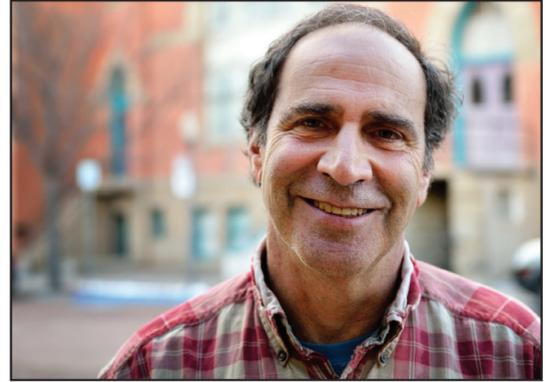

"We came from a poor family on Robinson Avenue in Trinidad. We never had TV, but my mom sent us all to Mt. Carmel School. It was fun to play kickball and softball. I wish I was still little. A lot of beautiful memories there."

— Juanita Medina (Raton)

"Playing Army on the vacant lot across Lopez Street from our house was fantastic. I played with all my neighborhood friends. We'd sneak through the grass and weeds and try to shoot at each other. We had to make our own gun noises."

— John Duran, medical equipment manager, Del Norte Home Medical, and musician, Cofax Reunion

"Going to football games in Connecticut on Thanksgiving Day, Stamford versus Fairfield Prep, from when I was 5, to about 12. My dad would sing football songs."

— Dan Jacobson, landlord, Denver (Trinidad)
