

OVER THE PASS

"I read my Bible for two or three hours, three times a day. God made the world and we're made in his image. Studying God's word is creative."

— Orlan Bishop, Trinidad

"I try to sleep late — I do fused glass. It's multiple layers of glass fused together. I make bowls, plates, platters and sculptures. I also maintain my website. I used to be the art director at an advertising agency."

— John LaRosa, artist, Weston

TIM KELLER'S CONNECTIONS

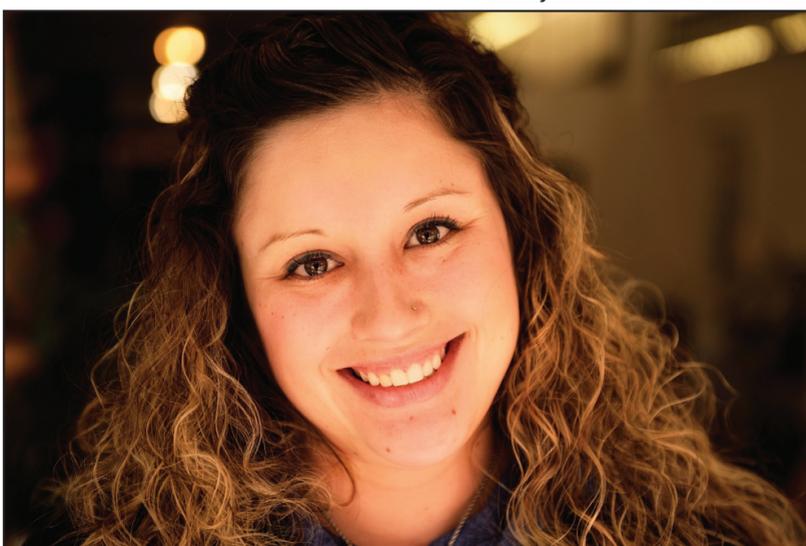

"What do you do that's creative?"

Photos by Tim Keller / The Chronicle-News

"I'm always drawn to sculpture and recently made my biggest sculpture yet, a 25-foot waterfall for a family near Folsom Falls. We used 70 tons of materials from as far as Anton Chico. The waterfall circulates 3000 gallons an hour. You'd have to look pretty close to determine that it's manmade."

— Nathaniel Franklin, sculptor, Des Moines, NM

"I write cheerful quotes on patients' boards every morning. I make people smile. That's creative."

— Shaylene Chavez, nurse tech, Albuquerque Presbyterian Hospital

SUPER CELEBRATION

Party like it's 1999: Denver to celebrate another Super Bowl

Associated Press

DENVER (AP)— Denver's getting ready to party like it's 1999.

Hundreds of thousands of people are expected to flood a downtown park and a 1.5-mile-long parade route Tuesday to celebrate the Denver Broncos' first Super Bowl championship in 17 years.

About 375,000 people attended the city's celebration after the Broncos beat Atlanta in 1999, police said at the time.

"We don't have a hard number" for this year's celebration, said Mike Stott, a spokesman for Mayor Michael Hancock. "We're probably expecting hundreds of thousands."

In 1998, when the Broncos brought home the first Super Bowl trophy in franchise history, the crowd was estimated at 650,000.

This year's party starts at 10 a.m. with a concert in front of the City and County Building overlooking Civic Center park and the state Capitol. Colorado natives Big Head Todd and The Monsters, 3OH!3 and Funkiphino will play.

The parade steps off at noon near Union Station, with fire trucks carrying players, coaches and general manager John Elway, who was quarterback the last time the

AP Photo/David Zalubowski

Denver Broncos fans celebrate the team's victory over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl 50 near intersection of 20th and Market Street late Sunday, Feb. 7, 2016, in Denver.

Broncos won.

Gov. John Hickenlooper and the Denver mayor will also be in the parade, which is expected to take an hour to arrive to the rally.

Police spokesman Doug Schepman wouldn't discuss the security specifics but said plenty of officers will be present. He said the city is in regular contact with state and federal law enforcement officials, but he wouldn't discuss any conversations they have had about Tuesday's events.

Alcohol and — this being Colorado — marijuana will be banned.

Fans began celebrating Sunday night as the clock ticked down on the Broncos' 24-10 win over the Carolina Panthers. Scores of fans took to the streets in central Denver in a mostly peaceful but boisterous celebration.

The crowd became unruly at times, but officers for the most part watched from the sidewalk. Police reported a handful of arrests, mainly for criminal mischief.

HOLY TRINITY ACADEMY
Shrove Tuesday Pancake Dinner
Tuesday, February 9th
at Holy Family Hall
(Fishers Peak Soup Kitchen)
4:30 – 6:30 P.M.
Adults $8.00/Children under 12 $5.00.

February is ...
Love Your Bookstore
 ...Month

SPECIAL EVENTS PLANNED FOR THE WHOLE MONTH:

Mon. 1	Tues. 2	Wed. 3	Thur. 4	Fri. 5	Sat. 6
"Blind Date with a Book" All month long.				Senior Citizen Day
Mon. 8	Tues. 9	Wed. 10	Thur. 11	Fri. 12	Sat. 13
MEMBERSHIP WEEK — New and Renewing members get a free gift.
Mon. 15	Tues. 16	Wed. 17	Thur. 18	Fri. 19	Sat. 20
Buy 2 books get one free (of equal or lesser value).
Mon. 22	Tues. 23	Wed. 24	Thur. 25	Fri. 26	Sat. 27
History Week — 30% off all history politics, and biography books.
Mon. 29	BOOKS & MORE
Surprise Leap Day Sale	132 N. Commercial Suite B Trinidad, CO 81082 (719) 846-8522

San Isabel
 Electric Association, Inc.
 A Touchstone Energy Cooperative

Reasons we LOVE SmartHub

- EASY ACCOUNT MANAGING
- TRACK ELECTRIC USAGE
- PAYMENTS ARE EASY, FAST & SECURED
- STAY EASILY CONNECTED

DOWNLOAD THE APP OR VISIT OUR WEBSITE: WWW.SIEA.COM