

OVER THE PASS

"In my heart of hearts, I'd like for me to be running my own Christian bookstore here in Trinidad. We have enough marijuana dispensaries and not enough bookstores."

- Susan Fresquez, housewife, Trinidad

"I want to be a cop, and then I want to help poor people. I want to go to New York. Then I want to go around the world."

Leandro Vigil, fourth grader, Clayton, NM

TIM KELLER'S CONNECTIONS

"What's your 5-year plan?"

"I hope the town will continue to have more tourists and our shop will continue to grow. Our landlady says it takes three years to build a local customer base. We've been here one year and we're off to a good start. We love the town. We feel like we're on the edge of it getting better and better."

- Clay Williams, co-owner, Crazy Raven Coffee, Gifts & Gallery, Trinidad

"To have a family and a home. It's going good so far. God's been good to me. I'm waiting for Him to bring me the one he has for me. I'd also like to go back to school, maybe to study radiology."

- Melissa Beach, patient financial services, Mt. San Rafael Hospital, Trinidad
