

OVER THE PASS

"I saw Jimi Hendrix at Mile High Stadium in 1969, and 20 years later in the same stadium, I saw the Dalai Lama."

— Martha Fitzgerald, retired photo stylist for Nordstrom's, Trinidad

"I've cut trees, broke horses, run rivers, sailed in the ocean, and bodysurfed during the Viet Nam War while I was stationed in Southern California as a U.S. Marine."

— Wayne Pritchard, artist, Trinidad

TIM KELLER'S CONNECTIONS

"What have you done that was exciting?"

Photos by Tim Keller / The Chronicle-News

"I guess 23 years in law enforcement was exciting, mostly. Handling wildlife can get exciting. You never know as you do it just how exciting it's about to be. The potential for excitement is always there."

— Chris Neary, Captain, retired, NM Dept. of Game & Fish, Raton

"I started racing sailboats when I was ten. I had a little Sunfish that I raced all around Central Texas and down on the coast. The other kids weighed a lot more than me, which helped keep their boats down in the wind. What was exciting? The competition, and the weather."

— Barbara Neary, MCMC records clerk, Raton
