

OVER THE PASS

"Swimming—anything water-related. We've already gone to the coast this summer on a sunset dolphin-watch excursion at Corpus Christi. I have two kids so I take them to anything water-related. We have season tickets to the water park."

— Jenny O'Hara, contractor, Athens, TX

"Probably just playing sports, hanging out with my friends, playing basketball at the community center. The pool's great to cool off, but I've been working too much to go this summer."

— Anthony Payne, waiter, The Lunch Box, Trinidad

TIM KELLER'S CONNECTIONS

"What are your favorite summer activities?"

Photos by Tim Keller / The Chronicle-News

"Going fishing at Monument Lake or here at Trinidad Lake, or going on a picnic with my family anyplace up in the mountains."

— Jake Duran, retired coal miner and truck driver, Trinidad

"Rafting on the Deschutes River. I try to do it four times a summer. I've been doing it since I was 12."

— Kristie Greenwood, executive assistant, Vancouver, WA

City crews keep Kit Carson Park lookin' fine

It is no small task taking care of one of the city's most historic landmarks, but Ted Moniot from the City's Park and Recreation Dept. is no stranger to the work at Kit Carson Park at the corner of Kansas Ave. and San Pedro St. The Park is home to the cast bronze statue of its famous frontiersman's namesake that was sculptured by Augustus Lukeman and Frederic Roth and completed in 1912. The bronze is widely considered to be the finest equestrian statue in North America.
